Consultants & Builders, Inc. Celebrates 25 Years

DULUTH, Georgia, January 1, 2011 – Consultants & Builders, Inc. (CBI), a leading design-build firm focusing exclusively on the development of financial institutions is celebrating 25 years of success. The company is headquartered in Duluth, Georgia, and offers a wide range of services including consulting, real estate solutions, branding and retail delivery services, facility and interior design and construction management.

CBI is a second generation, family owned business. The company was founded by Jim Williams in 1986 and, since its inception, has provided plan/design/brand/build services to hundreds of clients, completing over 500 facilities. Eighty percent of CBI's projects are with repeat clients which is a testimony to its unmatched financial institution expertise. Inc. Magazine has named CBI one of the fastest-growing private companies in America. CBI was listed on the Inc. 5000 in 2009, 2008 & 2007 and on the Inc. 500 in 2005. During the recent economic downturn, CBI has continued to expand its service offerings, reacting to the changing needs of its clients as well as their growing marketing sophistication.

The key to CBI's success and client satisfaction is its people. CBI's skilled and responsive professionals deliver over 330 years of unparalleled experience across a broad array of disciplines. Leveraging this depth of expertise, CBI answers its clients' growth challenges with proven solutions designed to increase efficiency, reduce costs and add value throughout.

"We are very proud to be celebrating our 25th year. We owe our success and longevity to our clients, our partners, and especially our dedicated team of professionals, each of whom helps CBI to continue to grow and prosper. We look forward to another 25 years and beyond", said Todd Williams, CEO, Consultants & Builders, Inc. (CBI).
