Bank of Dooly Breaks Ground

VIENNA, Georgia, October 25, 2007 – Bank of Dooly announced today that it has broken ground for a new main office in Vienna, Georgia. The bank is scheduled to open the doors of its new 9,000 SF facility in 2008. “We appreciate our many customers whose support has made this possible,” said Neil Joiner, President, Bank of Dooly.

The new facility will feature a welcoming traditional brick exterior on a site located directly behind the existing building. The lot is large and tree lined with extensive street exposure. The interior was designed with warm toned neutral colors to complement the rich red cherry wood furniture and the earth tone fabrics and floor coverings. The space is accented by hints of burgundy and gold and supported by a green inspired by the bank’s logo. The warm and inviting environment will acknowledge the long standing relationships between the employees and customers by promoting interaction and open communication through an accessible floor plan. The second floor will be left unfinished to provide the bank with space for future growth. The building will also feature drive-up windows and an ATM for the customers added convenience.

Consultants & Builders, Inc., a Duluth, Georgia-based firm that focuses exclusively on designing and building financial institutions, designed Bank of Dooly and is also building the new facility. “I am excited and proud to work with Bank of Dooly in their quest to bring a new facility, new technology and convenience to downtown Vienna and its citizens,” said Tyler Williams, President, Consultants & Builders, Inc. (CBI).
