Consultants and Builders, Inc.
Named One of Atlanta's Fastest-Growing Companies

Atlanta Business Chronicle Publishes Annual Pace Setters List of Atlanta's Top 50 Fastest Growing Private Companies

ATLANTA, April 27, 2005 – Consultants and Builders, Inc. has been named one of Atlanta's 50 fastest-growing privately-held companies by the Atlanta Business Chronicle. The publication selected Consultants and Builders for the annual Pace Setters award citing the company's double digit growth rates from 2002 through 2004.

Consultants and Builders (CBI) is a leading design-build firm focusing exclusively on the financial services market, offering a wide range of services including facility design and construction, interior design and retail delivery programs. In addition, the company is expanding its capabilities to strengthen its foothold in the financial services industry.

"We are thrilled to be recognized by the Atlanta Business Chronicle," said Jim Williams, Chief Executive Officer. "Our business formula continues to prove successful through varying market conditions. We're in a strong position to continue this positive growth and are expanding our management team, as well as our product and service offerings, to ensure that we continually deliver superior service to our clients. This award is a credit to our entire team of dedicated and committed professionals who've helped CBI attain this significant distinction."

In order to be considered for the Atlanta Business Chronicle's select group of Pace Setters, companies must be privately held, based in metro Atlanta, have revenues between $1 million and $300 million, and have a two-year growth in sales of more than fifty percent.

This year's Pace Setters were honored at a breakfast and ceremony at the Cobb Galleria Centre with the keynote address by Jack Welch, retired Chairman and CEO of General Electric and number one New York Times best-selling author.
